VOL. 1.

LANCASTER, OHIO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1860.

OFFICE Left at the Head of the Stairs.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. The Gazette will be published every Thursday.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Three insertions
Was and additional impetings are an experience and All advertisements running less than three months, in his angle of a fall in a large of weathers.
O Martin C Manthe 12 Moules
0
Caro 5 00 7 00 10 00
7 00 0 00 12 00
00 mm 11 00 mm 15 00
Charles County Column 10 00 15 00 20 00
One-third

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING.

From the Atlantic Monthly for September. The Children's Hour.

BY REARY WADSWORTH LONGIELLOW. fletween the dark and the daylight, When the night is beginning to lower Comes a pause in the day's occupation That is known as the Children's hour.

I hear in the chamber above me The patter of little feet, The sound of a door that is opened, And voices soft and sweet.

From my study I see in the lamplight. Descending the broad hall stair, Grave Allice and laughing Allegra, And Edith with golden hair.

A shispor, and then a slience: Vet I know by their merry eyes They are plotting and planning together To take me by surprise.

A sudden rush from the stairway, A sudden raid from the hall, By three doors left unguarded They entered by cratle wall

They climb up into my turret O'er the arms and back of my chair; If I try to escape, they surround me-They soom to be everywhere.

They almost devour me with kleson, Their arms about me entwine, Till I think of the Bishop of Bingen in his Monse Tower on the Rhine Do you think, O bine-eyed banditti, fleenuse you have scated the walt, Sueu an old mustache as I am la not a match for you all?

I have you fast in my fortress, And will not let you depart. In the round tower of my heart. And there will I keep you fore yor, Yes, forever and a day, Till the walls shall crumble to rule, And molder in dust away!

From Washington Irving's Sketch Book. THE WIFE.

The treasures of the deep are not so precious The treasures of the depotents of a man As are the conscaled comforts of a man Locked up in woman's love. I seem the air of blessings, when I come but near the house Willia delicious treats marriage sands forthful to be the distribution. Middle of the violet bed's not sweeter. Middle of the violet bed's not sweeter.

fortitude with which women sustain the most overwhelming reverse of fortune. Phose disus; ors which brenk down the I am to give to all her future prospects. spirit of a man, and prostrate him in the How am I to strike her very soul to the the softer sex, and give such intropolity a beggar that she is to forego all the eietimes it approaches to sublimity. Noth-society-to shrink with me into indigence and tenderness, and comfort !"

"Admirable girl !" exclaimed I. "You weakness and dependence, all alive to which she might have cotinued to move were so rich -you never knew the bound-beautifully ordered by Providence, that fully but positively.

children. If you are prosperous; there palace to be happy with Marythey are to share your prosperity; if oth- "I could live with her,"he cried, convulerwise, there they are to comfort you." sively, "in a hovel! I could go down And, indeed, I have observed that a mar- with her into poverty and the dust! I could ried man falling into misfortune is more I could-God bless her," cried he, bursspt to retrieve his fituation in the world ting in on transport of grief and tender-than a single one; partly because he is ness. shough all sbroad is darkness and hu-fervent sympathies of her nature; for she most touching simplicity. a little air of milks water an militation, yet there is still a little word of will rejoice to prove that she loves you which her husband was peculiarly fond.

married a beautiful and accomplished girl this world." was on her cheek; her whole countenance this world.

Was on her cheek; her whole countenance the same thing in the earnestness beamed with smiles—I had never seen her life. She had it is true, no fortune, but of my manner, and the figurative style of look so levely.

Was on her cheek; her whole countenance this world.

That should cast any blight on her remediate the same who later should not pass her by, for surely their lotts the same.

his tall, manly person. The fond, confi-ding air with which she looked up to him "And how did she bear it?" BOOK AND JOB PRINTING.

We are propared to execute all descriptions of Job Works, such as CARDS, CIRC LARS, POSTERS, BALLTICKETS, and every other variety of PLAIN AND PANCY JOBBING, with new and superfortype, and on short notice.

We are propared to execute all descriptions of Job Works, such as CARDS, CIRC LARS, POSTERS, seemed to call forth a flush of triumphant Like an angel! It seems rather to be a relief to ber mind, for she threw ber arms doted on his lovely burden for its helpless-around my neck and asked if this was all > was the thought that he was soon to make circumstances. her wretched. A little while, thought he Some days afterwards he called upon and miseries of the world. agony of tears.

me almost to madness!"

ger than imparted by yourself; for the of this femily story, and, as it was a fine secents of those we love salten the barsher evening I offered to accompany him. tidings. Besides you are depriving yourself of the comforts of her sympathy; and day, and as he walked out, fell into a fit of not merely that, but endangering the only bond that can keep hearts together—an "Poor Mary," it length broke, with a bond that can ke p hearts together - an unreserved community of thought and heavy sigh, from his lips. feeling. She will soon perceive that someand true love will not brook reserve; it glance, "it is nothing to be reduced to the N. Y. Post. feels undervalued and outraged, when paltry situation - to be caged in a miscra-I have offen had occasion to remark the even the sorrows of those it loves are ble cottage - to be obliged to toil almost concealed from it."

"O! but my friend to think! what a blow birations?"

graceful foliage about the oak, and been by words.—When his paroxism had sub--she has been employed all day in arcing each other in a soft net work of dim lifted by it into sunshine, will, when the sided, and he had relapsed into moody hardy plant is rifted by the thanderbolt, silence I resumed the su ject gently, and for the first time, known the fatigues of Meanwhile the cloude drop shadow-like cling around it with its caressing tendrils urged him to break his situation at once domestic emplopment -- she has, for the anchors, that reach the ground, but will woman, who is the mere dependent and "But how are you to keep it from her? everything convenient; and may now be unconscious traveller writes itself along woman, who is the mere dependent and but now are you to seep it from der. everything convenient; and may now be unconscious traveller writes itself along ornament of man in his happy hours, It is neccessary that she should know it, sitting down, exhausted and spiritless, the ground in dim shadow.—H. W. Beech. should be his stay and solace, when that you may take the steps proper to the brooding over a prospect of future poversmitten with sudden calamity: winding alteration of your circumstance. You ty." herself into the rugged recesses of his must change your style of living-nay," nature, tenderly supporting the drooping, observing a pang to pass across his coun-head and binding up the broken heart. tenance, "Jon't let that afflict you. I am walked on in silence. I was once congratulating a friend, who sure you have never placed your happihad around him a blooming family, knit ness in outward show-you have yet together in the strongest affection. "I friends-warm friends, who will not think can wish you so better lot." said le with the worse of you for being less splendidly enthusiasm, "than to have a wife and lodged; and surely it do s not require a

CLARKE, KOOKEN & SUTPHEN,

| CLARKE, KOOKEN & SUTPHEN, | CLARKE, ROOKEN & SUTPHEN, | C

The very difference of their characters had said, I felt some little solicitude for fond of them -- and we have such excellent produced a harmonious combination; he the result. We can calculate the fortitude cream—and everything is so sweat and was of a romantic, serious cast, she was all of one whose life has been a round of pleastill here—O !" said she, putting her arm

"Like an angel! It seems rather to be felicity. COUNTY OF FICERS.

Judge of Karffeld Common Pleas Const.—HENRY C. WHITMAN, residence Lanceaster, Ohio.

Probate Judge.—JESSE LEOHNER, Office at Juli.

Serial.—ARON W. EBRILHT, Office at Juli.

Clark of Court.—JOHN C. EXINEY, Office at Juli.

Research.—A. J. DILDINE, Office Public Building.

Auditor.—A. J. DILDINE, Office Public Building.

Auditor.—A. J. DILDINE, Office Public Building.

Research.—J. Syrbett, Office Public Building.

Commissioners.—JOSEPH SHARP, of Walson Township.

John W. CUNNINGHAM, of decking Township.

School. E. Z. miners.—W. W. WHITNEY, JOHN W. CUNNINGHAM, of decking Township.

School. E. Z. miners.—W. W. WHITNEY, JOHN W. CUNNINGHAM, of decking Township.

School. E. Z. miners.—W. W. WHITNEY, JOHN WILLIAMS and URIAH C. EUTTER.

doted on his lovely burden for its helpless. The case forward on the flowery path of early and well situated marriage with a fairer prospect of felicity.

It was the misforthod of my friend, however, to have-embarked his property in large speculations; he had not been marriage with a fairer prospect of felicity.

It was the misforthod of my friend, however, to have-embarked his property in large speculations; he had not been marriage with a fairer prospect of felicity.

It was the misforthod of my friend, however, to have-embarked his property in large speculations; he had not been marriage with a fairer prospect of felicity.

It was the misforthod of my friend, however, to have-embarked his property in large speculations; he had not been marriage with a fairer prospect of felicity.

It was the misforthod of my friend, however, to have-embarked his property in large speculations; he had not been marriage with a fairer prospect of felicity.

To was the flowery path of early and well situated marriage with a fairer prospect of felicity.

It was the misforthod of my friend, how deep o ness. Never did a couple set forward on that had lately made me nihappy. But,

His life was but a protracted agony and to her, the sooner you let the world into what rendered it more insupportable was the secret the better. The disclosure may the necessity of keeping up a smile in the be mortifying; but then it is a single mispresente of his wife; for he could not bring cry, and soon over; whereas you otherhimself to overwhelm her with the news, wise suffer it in anticipation, every hour She saw however, with quick eye of affec- in the day. It is not poverty so much as tion that all was not well with him. She pretence, that harasses rained man-the marked his altered looks and stiffed sighs struggle between a proud mind and an and was not to be deceived by his sickly empty purse, the keeping up hollow show and vivid attempt at cheer alhess. Sie that soon come to an end. Have the courtasked all her sprightly powers and ten age to appear poor, and you disarm pover-der blandishments to win him back to ty of its sting." On this point I found happiness; but she only drove the arrow Leslie quite prepared. He had no false deeper into his soul. The more he saw prifte bimself, and as to his wife, she was cause to love her, the more torturing only anxious to conform to their altered and the smile will vanish from that cheek- me in the evening. He had disposed of will have trials of its own. And with a and addressed the people for an hour and and the smile will vanish from that cheek—me in the evening. He had disposed of the song will die away from those lips

the song will die away from those lips
the lustre of those eyes will be quench—the lustre of the cd with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; and the happy heart been busied all day in sending out farnied with sorrow; an which row beats lightly in that bosom will ture. The new establishment required weighed down like mine ty the cares few articles, and those of the simples kind. All the furniture of his late resi-At length he came to me one day and dence had been sold, except his wile's related his whole situation in a tone of harp. That, he said, was too closely asdeep despair. When I heard him through sociated with the idea; it belonged to the Linquired, "Does your wife know all little story of their loves; for some of the this? At the question he burst into an sweetest moments of their courtship were those when he had leaned over that instru-"For God's sake!" cried Ic, "if you ment, and listened to the melting tones of have any pity on me, don't mention my her voice. I could but smile at this inwife; it is the thought of her that drives stance of romantic gallantry in a doting husband. "And why hot?" said I. "She must He was now going out to the cottage, know it seener or later; you cannot keep where his wife had been all day superinit long from her, and the intelligence may tending its arrangements. My teeling had break upon her in a more startling man- become strongly interested in the progress

"And what of her?" "What," said he, darting an impatient

'in the menial concerns of her wrethed ha-"Has she then repined at the change?" "Repined! she has been nothing dust seem to call forth all the energies of earth, by telling ber that her husband is sweetness and good humor. Indeed she a soft, tender femile, who has been all dragged her down from the sphere in call yourself poor, my friend; you never rising in mental force to be the comforter riow can see bear poverty?—see has been as the field of society. Oh, it will break her ing at the cottage was over, I think I ing. A million shadowy arrows such as tortune, and abiding with unshrinking heart, it will break her heart.

As the vine, which has long twined its it have its flow; for sorrow relieves, itself been introduced into an humble dwelling rection, the direction, they cross, interlaand bind up its shattered bough, so is it to his wife. He shook his head mourn first time, looked around her on a home not hold; every browsing creature, every destitute of everything elegant -- almost flitting bird, every moving team, every

> There was a degree of probability in this picture that I could not gainsay, so we

After turning from the main road up a parrow lane, so thickly shaded with forest trees as to give it a complete air of seclusion, we came in sight of the cottage,-It was humble enough in its appearance for the most pastoral poet; and yet it had a pleasing rural look. A wild vine had foilage; a few trees threw their branches solitude. Deep grief, deep love-how gracefully over it; and I also observed naturally do these sity themselves with several pots of flowers tastefully dispos- religious feelings; and all three, love, ed about the door, and on the grass grief, religion, are haunters of solitary more stimulated to exertion by the neces- "And believe me, my friend, said I, plat in front. A small wicket gate opened places. sities of the helpless and beloved beings stepping up and grasping him warmly by a footpath that wound through some shrub-who depend upon him for subsistence: but the hand, "believe me, slie can be the bery to the door. Just as we approached, chiefly because his spirits are soothed and same with you. Aye, more; it will be a we heard the sound of music-Leslie grasp- for the Queen's message, pespetrated the relieved by domestic endearments, and his source of pride and triumph to her-it ed my arm; we paused and listened. It following: self-respect kept alive by finding that, will call forth all the latent energies and was Mary's voice singing, in a style of the

to ruin like some deserted mansion, for beams and blazes in the dark hour of ad out of the window and vanished—a light want of an inhabitant.

These observations call to mind a little of his bosom is—no man knows what a ing forth to meet us; she was in a pretty domestic story of which I was once a witness. My intimate friend, Leslie, had gone with her though the fiery tria's of were twisted in her hair; a fresh bloom Though she works for alicing 1 cannot see why was on her cheek ; her whole countenance that of my friend was ample; and he delight d in the anticipation of induiging her in every elegant pursuit, and administering to those delicate tastes and fan cies that spread a kind of witchery about the exc. "Her life," said ho, "shall be like a fairty tale."

The very difference of their characters had said. I fall some little solicitude for fond of them.

we are permitted to make an extract.

do so with pleasure, as it will show somewe will Judge Douglas be so kind as to "Will Judge Douglas be so kind as to Representative is held by those friends of oblige a fellow-citizen by stating before Freedom best situated to judge of his the people here assembled his Answer to course. Mr. Sumner says: to the following

"DEAR STR: "Of course, I send my speech with pleasure; but when I think that it is go- of the United States, would you carry out, ing to a constituent of Mr. Ashley, I feel the doctrine that the people of a Territo that it is like sending 'com's to New Cas- ry, before it becomes a State, have the powtle, or, according to more ancient saying er, under the Federal Constitution, and like sending owls to Athens."

rescutative has discussed the Slavery

The New Postuge Stamp. Washington, taken from a portrait execu- most interesting point. ted the time when he resigned the command of the army, and differs materially from all other likenesses of him. The shything but a handsome appearance .-As these stantps are to be affixed to foreign letters only, we may suppose that they will elicit a very high encommum up- Rhine?"

on our style of engraving. The stamps now in use are of the following demoninations: one, three, five, picked up much trafie?" ten, twelve, twenty-four, thirty and ninety cents. The amounts that are generally paid on foreign lefters not covered by the above, are-filteen, twenty-seven and fifty four cents, for which a combination Beauties of Shadows.

The shadows all day long play at silent games of beauty. Everything is double, if it stands in light. The tree sees an unrevealed and muffled self lying darkly along the ground. The slender stems of the solver sex, and give such intreplatty a beggin that she is to lorge and the character, that at gaucies of life—all the pleasures of gav known her; she has been to me all love, ow daisies, and rare lillies (rare and yet abundant, in every nice, level meadow.) east forth a dim and tremulous line of shadow, that lies long all the morning, shortening till noon, and creeping but weakness and dependence, all ally a which she might have confided to her less treasures of excellence you possess in again all the afternoon, until the sun shoots it as lar eastward in the evening, not the rider turned him aside.

overrun one end with a profusion of they seek for solitude, and are nursed by respectfully, amen."

"Because one drinks water and meat to Mr. AshleyA Republican of this city having written to Mr. Summer for a copy of his speech man who of ered it, respectfully acquiese.

Do Insects fe received in answer a letter, from which ed in the propriety of the question, and he sending owls to Athens.'

"Indeed your own distinguished Repto prohib't or excluded slavery therefrom?

"In other words: question with an exhaustive thoroughness . Do you affirm that the people of a which leaves litt'e else to be desired. Territory have the Constitutional right to "In exposing the usurpations of the Su-crush the cockatrice's eggs, as soon as these premis Court he has rendered a timely are deposited in its nest by the propaganservice -- much needed at this moment dists of Slavery, or must they tolerate the when the fanatical dogma of Mr. Calhoun incubation, and wait till the eggs become on Slavery in the Territories has been full grown and active tipers that can be embodied in formal judicial opinions. We pursued and exterminated only by the all feel grateful to Mr. Ashley for this newly-created sword of State authority. service. I am glad to learn that he has With this question before him, which been nominated for re-election. Success he promised to answer, the Judge arose my own, preferring that you bestow such reflections upon it as eander and fidelity The ninety-cent postage stamps so anx- to truth require. But it seems to me the iously looked for by merchants have been public should know what questions Judge forwarded by the department and are Douglas refuses to answer, and conjecnow for sale at the Postoffice. The centure as best they may, the reason why he

Yankee Jew. color of the ground is blue, presenting gen, saw a mearchant, whom he seemed to low me, and I will make you a preacher ness of the doctrine that the Constitution travel from Busle to Strasburg on the sermons have nearly ruined good preachhave you my fellow traveler, since we met, they would be more useful. Preaching swering, asked: "Did you make a good his congregation. Learning, rheterio, elspeculation at the Strasburg Fair? if so, oquence, are good as collatteral influenwould like to propose a bet to you; that ces, but no man will win souls who does ed opinion, is shown by the Senator's vote is bet that you cannot repeat three words not feel the throbbing pulse of his whole

The merchant, thinking that a few wants; who does not study their lives; pence more or less, would make no differ- who does not understand how to take the ence to him, replied: "Say on."

The Jew said, "Cutler. The merchant repeated, "Cutler." Next "bag-pipe was responded to. The Jew smiled, "Wrong."

Olive oil."

The merchant said; "Olive dil." "Tapuer."

"Tanner. The Jew smiled again saying, 'Wrong. merchant said:

me how I was wrong.

Not long since, as a gentleman of and somewhat doubtful of the result, went nothing visible to ignite them. Our read-Calhoun, Georgia, was riding on horse out of hearing, as he supposed, and made ers will very likely think this a hoaz, but tablishes Slavery in all the Territories. back, followed by a faithful dog, the latter animal was attracted by another of the are, about four thousand of us, and twen. Poke county for authority. same species, who was about obtaining ty-four thousand Mexicans—enough to the mastery when the gentleman's horse swallow us without greasing. Now, Lord, rushed upon him and dealt him a furious if you can help us, do it-if you can't for kick which he would have repeated had heaven's sake don't help the Mexicansand just hold on until to morrow, and you'll see some of the gaul darndest LT All deep feelings agree in this, that fighting you ever saw in your life! Yours

> Gov. Chase, of Ohio, is to give the annual address before the Agricultural also to be read by Jehn G. Saxe. The tober 2d. Fair, which is usually one of the best in the country, will be held on the 5th 6th the angles was really be really was replaced by the sample was really be really was replaced by the sample was really by the sample was re the country, will be held on the 5th, 6th the engine very rarely leaves the rails, un- the Mississippi river, is selling at Indianand 7th of September; the speaking will less the crown plate of the inner fire-box ola and Lavaca, for twenty-five conts be on the 7th.

off Cape Cod--How He Looked Through a Ginss.

Province town, they saw a monster, about fidently invites its inspection. We think four hundred feet from the boat, passing it will be found, on examination, that he slowly along in advance of them. They is a decided pro-alavery man; that his describe the creature as being black, about opinions on the Slavery question are identical with those professed by the Breekwas of a romantic, serious cast, she was all of one whose hie has been a round of pleas still here—O!" said she, putting her arm life and gladness. I have offen noticed the mute rapture with which he would gaze upon her in company, of which her sprightly powers made her the delight; been and in the midst of applause her the delight; or the sanny regions in which they hish round her the delight; or the sanny regions in which they hish round her—he kissed her and tissed again; there alone she sought favor and as galling morifications to which in other accordance. When her to his been a round of pleas still here—O!" said she, putting her arm and source. When her alone she sought favor and as galling morifications to which in other accordance. When her to his been a round of pleas still here—O!" said she, putting her arm and source. When her alone she sought favor and as times a loop with a loop of the was will represent the was to be within the source of the said times a loop with a times a loop with a loop to the was call to the source of the was loop in the source of the was call to be seen. As Judge Douglas, when he was here to be sound the source of the source of the source of the was call to the source of the acceptance. When hanging on his arm ranks it is a stranger. In short, I could her slender form contrasted finely with not meet Leslie the next morning without prosperously with him, and his life has indeed been a happy one, yet never has he seat on the stand with him, put into his anything ever seen by them before. It is position correctly on the paramount experienced a moment of more exquisite hands the following Question, which he was most respectfully requested to answer and suddenly disappeared in about ten in the course of his remarks. The Judge minutes, at the distance of a quarter of a present to cluedate the causes which have Senator Summer --- A Handsome Compli- on receiving it (it was before he rose to mile. It was afterward seen further off, given Kentucky to the Union party by his conviction is founded on an ample operation first, and incorporation ultimatemass of evidence, on observations and ty with the Union party.

Do Insects feel Phin-

experiments, and strengthened by analog.

In the election referred to, the Dauglan ical reasoning. He mentions that insects, when neutrinted to a way that would cause excessive pain and spredy death to verten that annimals, afterwards perform all the functions of life—eating, drinking, dec., with the street agriculture of the control of the c have been;) but really the creature's Greene and Hughes, should prove a fail-pl-asure seemed to be only augmented by the change in his anatomy, because he could drink ten times his ordinary fill of within the Union is the platform on which

- The poor beetle that we trend upon In corpored sufferance finds a pung as great As when a giant dies.

Who are the Great Preachers!

with human life, and who had an end to gain with the men before them. But ing. If ministers cared more for their The mearchant assented and usked; people and less for their own sermons, has almost ceased to be a living business The Jew, like a Yankee, instead of an between a man's heart and the wants of congregation; who does not know their pocket, made a stroke and, "One sixpence thousands would have to be built. For monly called the Compromise measures.) you may depend uyon it, there is never a Again the Jew commenced, and said man who preaches intelligent truth, and

And so on till the sixth time, when the nature has recently developed itself near his vote on that occasion was necessarily the Horse Lake, Polk county, Wisconsin. cast in conformity with the Southern in-"Now, I will pay you, if you can show Flames of fire came up through the earth terpretation of the "principles of the Konin several localities, one man's barn has sas Nebraska bill;" in other words, in con-The Jew said, "You never said the third been burned down by it. Strange to say. word "wrong" and accordingly I won the the fire can only be seen in the daytime, which he had made four years previously. the earth in the evening bearing a close re- These facts speak for themselves. We The merchant paid, and the Jew, as sembiance to phosphorus. The air smells usual had made money as he went along, as if impregnated with sulphur. The most remarkable feature in the case is the fact ATA Yankee from Main, being at that all wooden articles in the houses lo-Bucna Vista, the night before the battle, cated near by, take fire, although there is the abrogation of the Missouri Compromise, late election in Kentucky was about 40. a circumstance which has no sort of rela-000 less than a full vote. Peters, the tion to his position on the Slavery ques-Breckenridge candidate for Judge of the tion. the Court of Appeals in the Louisville District, is elected, contrary to first reports, by more than 1,000 majority. The as .- A letter from San Antonia, Texas, plurality for Camba is from 20,000 to 25,- dated July 21st says:-"The weather con-000 in the State.

Society of Addison County, Vermont, at address at the Detroit meeting of the tween the coast and San Antonia. Freights their Fair in September next. A poem is Michigan State Agricultural Society, Oc- have risen so much that flour, within a be crushed downwards.

The Sea Serpent Again -- The Big Sanke Bell's Position on the Slavery Question

The result of the Kentucky election, and A party of gentlemen who returned the impulse thereby given to the Bell and trom a week's boating excursion last night, and who, it may not be improper to the opinions of Bell on the Slavery questate, are all temperance men, report having seen what they b lived to be a see known to the public. Nor is this a diffiserp-ut, off Cap Cod, last Saturday after- cult tank. He has served in Congress noon. The statement made by two of the number is substantially as follows:

Just before seven o'clock, as they were lying to in a calm, off the mouth of Barn. Is therefore axtensive, and judging from a louer of his, recently written and published bay, and some fifteen miles from lished, be refers to it with pride, and con-Theore will sully the mind.

LAURA.

Constitute size of a Kosatth hat, and the body as large round as a 1st tracket.

Question to Judge Douglas Unauswered inches above the water, and at times a lor of that question, and that is the sole large portion of the body could be seen.

As Judge Douglas, when he was here They examined it through a glass, and and the Southern Democracy. Neither They examined it through a glass, and the Southern Democracy. Neither They examined it through a glass, and the Southern Democracy. Neither the premises between him and the Southern Democracy. Neither the premises between him and the Southern Democracy. a sweeping majority. Assuming that Kentucky is mainly Pro Slavery, but at the same time devoted to the Union, it follows that Bell must have beaten Breckwe are jet mitted to make an extract. We promised to raply to it in the course of his do so with pleasure, as it will show something of the estimate in which our own thing of the estimate in which our own thing of the estimate in which our own thing of the estimate in which he expresses his sincere belief that with disunion. The fate of the Douglas insected do not feel poin. He affirms that faction in the Slave States seems to be considered to make an extract. We promised to raply to it in the course of his ed a work on "Brittish Butterflies," in with a party which supposed to be tained to which he expresses his sincere belief that with disunion. The fate of the Douglas insected do not feel poin. He affirms that Mr. W. S. Coleman has just publish- inridge there, as the letter is identified with the same evident gusto and power his own coining for Squ tter : overeignty of enjoyment as before. Plenty of strik. Democracy. Special causes in this State ing instances of this are on record, and as will go far to counteract, for the present, an example, Mr. Coleman states that he the mutual tendency to fusion on the part has seen a wasp that had been cut in two, of the followers of Bell and the followers afterwards rega'e himself with avidity of Douglas; but yet we have little doubt upon some syrap, which as he imbribed, that as a general thing the latter will act gathered into a large ruby head just be-with the former in Novem'er, unless the hind the wings (where the stemach should Breckinridge movement, initiated by Polk, sweets, without, of course, getting any John Bell's record establishes him. In fuller. We can almost fancy the scientif- the great debate on the Compromise meas-"Believe me, dear sir, faithfully yours, carefully avoided all allusion to it. I more of Shakspeare's Isabella, in Messure for half what they are, except for slave labor; and that the inscitution is in harmony with the laws of nature, and has prevailed in all ages and countries. This is sufficiently explicit. Indeed the force of language can no farther go in panegyrizing the in-The great preachers of the world have stitution. But we have also an emphatic ter of the stamp has a representation of chooses to "conceal his opinions" on that been those who were in direct sympathy avowal of the Calhoun theory. (now the specialty of the Southern or Breckinsidge Democracy.) on the Constitutional rights' with culture and scholastic habits, men of slavery in the Territories. In the same A Jew, in a tavern in the town of Endin have interpreted the word of God, "Pol. speech, Mr. Bell affirms that the "soundrecognize: "Are you not one of the good of sermons." The end of preaching is not men, with whom I had the pleasure to of a good sermon, but a holy heart. Fine protects the citizen in the enjoyment of his rights of property of every description, recognized as such in any of the States, on every sea and in every Territory of the Union," cannot be successfully impeach

> That the foregoing is no inadvertent as-section, no rhetorical flourish, but a maturon the Kansas Netraska bill, four years

libing before t e Senate, Mr. Douglas primary truths of Christianity, and apply them to the consciences of men in their the following, containing the very virus daily business life. Such preachers, and and deadly langs of the disastrous measure: "which (the Missouri Compromise) and such preaching is necessary to the The merchant, puzzled, bethought him- filling of the churches. Were such preach non-intervention by Congress with Slaveself where the mistake could be, but the ing universal in our time, not only would ry in the States and Territories, as recog-Tew, taking a piece of chalk out of his our churches be filted to overflowing, but mized by the legislation of 1850, (com-

"is hereby declared inoperative and void." These are words in which the Missouri preaches it with a living sympathy for Compromise was abolished, and John Bolt men, that people do not flock to hear of Tennessee voted for their adoption and their incorporation in the bill, as well as Atchison, Geyer and Douglas. As Bell AT One of the strangest phenomena in has never accepted Squatter Sovereignty. formity with the declaration quoted above.

have no comment to make on them further than to presume the atter impossibility of any Republican or Benton Democrat voting for the man who himself voted for sas-Nebraska bill on its passage, but he did so because it gave aliens the same pri-KENTUCKY ELECTION. -The vote at the wlieges as natives in the new Territories-

TERRIBLE EFFECTS OF DEGUGTH IN TEXtiques perfectly dry, and besides the fall-Caseius M. Clay will deliver the nience, by hindering transportation beweek or two, has gone up from $10 to $20 gallon I